

COLLEGE
OF INTERRELIGIOUS
STUDIES
M O N C H E N

St. Bonifaz

The College at the House of Cultures and Religions in Munich offers the opportunity to (further) qualify for professional fields with interreligious and intercultural negotiation processes. Intercultural and interreligious competencies and experiences are gained and deepened in addition to a corresponding study at a Munich university, especially through practical offers:

- Live for one (or two) year(s) in an INTERRELIGIOUS AND INTERCULTURAL COMMUNITY in the monastery St. Bonifaz in the heart of Munich.
- STUDY THE CERTIFICATE PROGRAM „ETHICS OF INTERCULTURAL DIALOGUE” or the “MASTER OF ARTS IN ETHICS” with the emphasis on “Ethics of Intercultural Dialogue” (both in German) at the Munich School of Philosophy or comparable programs at other universities in Munich.
- Deepen your understanding in INTERNSHIPS WITH RELIGIONS other than your own.
- SHARE YOUR EXPERIENCES with others and unite them both academically & spiritually.
- Be part and ENGAGE with your personal

strengths and interests AT THE HOUSE OF CULTURES AND RELIGIONS IN MUNICH.

The college is completed either with a certificate (after one year) from OCCURSO Institute for Intercultural and Interreligious Encounters, the sponsor of the college, or with a master's degree (after two years), from the respective university. The academic certificate with suitable Credits is awarded from the Munich School of Philosophy (or the respective university).

People educated in Germany, refugees, people with immigration background and international exchange students of different religions (or without any religious affiliation) and cultures study together in German and English at the College. The college is open for female, male, diverse students.

It is possible to apply for scholarships.

Start: October 1st

Deadline for all applications: July 15th 2022
